Planting Seeds in The Philippines

Joseph Blasko and his wife, Vangie, teach at a Christian School in Manila. God is using them greatly at the school. Some time ago they participated in a Good Soil Seminar led by Ariel Abadiano, Good Soil Director for the Philippines. That's when God began to use them in other ways.

➤➤➤ Then he and Ariel taught the Good Soil seminar to all the deacons and their wives in the church. Those people began leading TSOH Bible studies with others. Joe team-taught (with one of his trainees) Good Soil to another group which included Pastor Vincent. They saw more fruit.

Joe started leading TSOH Bible studies with individuals in homes. People came to understand the Bible's story and trusted Jesus as their personal savior. Joe also went out in the streets around his neighborhood equipped with Good Soil teaching visuals, laying them down before people as he taught. He had great responses. ➤➤➤

To date, 35 people in their church have been trained and are using Good Soil resources. People are trusting Christ, being baptized, and joining the church. It's exciting to see the seeds planted bearing fruit!

Helen had never led a Bible study in her life. Since taking Good Soil, she is now leading two individual studies and a small group Bible study using TSOH.

Moving Beyond Lecture: A Six Step Process for Engaging Presentations

- 1. Mind Map - Learn a quick and easy visual method for determining the content needed for your training/teaching sessions.
- 2. Define Objectives - Decide what you want participants to know, be able to do, and to feel, as a result of your training/teaching.
- 3. Prioritize Content - Differentiate between the content that participants really "need to know".
- 4. Outline Content - Based upon the visual "mind map," organize the teaching content into an outline form.
- 5. Chunk Content - Based upon the outline, organize the teaching content into CPR "chunks" (bite-size segments) that can be taught in 20 minutes or less.
- 6. Insert Activities - Explore 30+ alternatives to lecture that will add options to your presentational toolkit.

Seminar Highlight

Become a Creative Facilitator of Interactive Training

You're up in front of your class and the silence is deafening. You just asked a question of your students, but no one is responding. Then, you hear someone start to... no wait, it was just a snore!

Or how about the time (or times!) that guy hijacked your class? Why does he do that? What can you do to manage such difficult participants?

Then there was the time you had to share a two-hour seminar on one of your favorite topics. You studied and prepared well and then poured all your knowledge and wisdom out on those lucky students. But the questions the students asked and the assessment tool they filled out afterward revealed that they didn't get any of it! Aaagh! What to do??

Moving Beyond Lecture can help you with these issues and more. In this 10-hour workshop, you'll learn how to prepare and organize classes into fun, bite-size chunks which allow students to "get it." You'll also learn how to facilitate learning with at least 30 sure-fire interactive methods which will have your students asking for more.

October Seminar Dates:

Moving Beyond Lecture

October 20–21, 2016

Are you frustrated with the lack of audience involvement in your presentations? Are you desperately in need to stop or minimize lecturing but are not sure what to do differently? Are you longing for a process to help you design and deliver memorable presentations and training sessions? If you answered yes to any of these questions then this seminar is for you!

The Roots of Faith

June 12 - 16, 2017 - Old Testament
June 19 - 23, 2017 - New Testament

The Roots of Faith is a chronological Bible survey of God’s redemptive plan, consisting of two courses: The Roots of Faith - Old Testament & The Roots of Faith - New Testament. It is a study of God’s progressive revelation of major theological concepts, especially those closely related to mankind’s spiritual needs and God’s plan of salvation. Altogether these courses include lessons that feature 100 major Bible events from Genesis to Revelation.

Hooks OT and NT will be offered in the evenings on October 17-18, 2016.
