What is Good Soil E&D?

According to Jesus, the “good soil” is a person who hears God’s word and...

- Clearly understands it. (Matthew 13:23)
- Sincerely embraces it. (Mark 4:20)
- Firmly holds on to it. (Luke 8:15)

We provide evangelism (the “E”) training and resources to equip Christ-followers to present the gospel in a way that people will clearly understand and sincerely embrace it.

Our discipleship (the “D”) training and resources assist disciple makers as they minister to other believers, in teaching them to firmly hold on to the gospel that they have understood and embraced.

Good Soil E&D is worldview-relevant evangelism & discipleship.

We provide training and resources to help you share the gospel, as God's story of hope, in a world of competing faiths and cultures.

Good Soil is Chronological

Focused on God's redemptive story as it unfolds chronologically from Genesis through Revelation.

Good Soil is Visual

Illustrated with high quality images from the Redemptive Story Art Series, specially created for Good Soil Evangelism and Discipleship.

Good Soil is Flexible

Adaptable for evangelism and discipleship in various worldview cultures and for use in a variety of available-time settings.

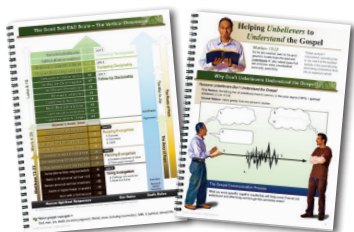

Good Soil is Biblical

Based upon a Biblical theology of evangelism and discipleship, developed from the teachings of Jesus and the practices of the apostles and the early Church.

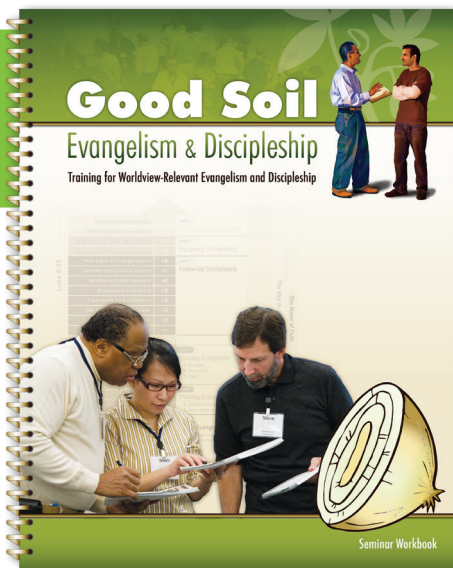

Good Soil Seminars

Training for Worldview-Relevant Evangelism & Discipleship

Learn how to...

- Evaluate a person's spiritual status on the Good Soil evangelism and discipleship scale.
- Peel an unbeliever's "worldview onion" through casual conversations.
- Determine how much gospel content and Biblical context an unbeliever needs in order to make a good soil faith response.
- Penetrate unbiblical "worldview noise" using God's redemptive story, as it unfolds from Genesis through Revelation.
- Use the Chronological Bridge to Life to help unbelievers embrace the gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Disciple new believers through their first steps in following Jesus.

Using Bible Stories in Evangelism and Discipleship

Everyone loves a story! And we can all think of someone who tells great stories. You might even think, “Oh, how I wish I could tell stories like Uncle Bob!” Well, now you can. We are all storytellers. Some of us (either by accident or purposefully) have just perfected our storytelling skills. At the Good Soil BibleStorying workshop you will...

- Participate in a process for learning and remembering Bible stories.
- Learn engaging storying techniques.
- Learn how to use Bible stories in multiple settings to reach:
 - » Adults
 - » Children
 - » Postmoderns
 - » Tribal peoples, etc.
- Develop teaching-learning techniques and improve your preaching with stories.

BibleStorying is a 2-day (12 hour) training seminar offered yearly in May. Cost includes instructional materials, lunch, and snacks.

Yearly MAY Seminar Schedule:

The Roots of Faith Bible Courses

The Roots of Faith: Exploring the Bible from Beginning to End

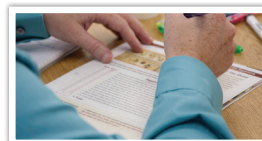

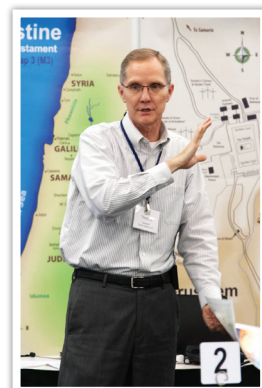

The Roots of Faith is an extensive (100 Bible events) and intensive (80 hours of class participation) study of the Bible's redemptive story. This chronological Bible study program consists of two courses: The Roots of Faith—Old Testament and The Roots of Faith—New Testament.

INTERACTIVE
and FUN

In The Roots of Faith courses you will learn...

- The basic content of the Old and New Testaments.
- The chronology of 100 major Bible events—how the Bible progressively unfolds from Genesis through Revelation.
- The geographic locations where major Bible events occurred.
- Each course (Old Testament and New Testament) consists of 40 hours of classroom instruction, Monday through Friday.
- The courses are creatively interactive and lots of fun.
- Not only will you enjoy these courses as a student, but you will also simultaneously be equipped to teach these courses. See pages 16-17 for information on The Roots of Faith Instructor Kits.
- Student workbooks are available for purchase by course graduates to use in teaching others.

The Roots of Faith—Old Testament

$250 registration

Unfolds the promises of the Jewish Messiah who would become the Savior of the world.

The Roots of Faith—New Testament

$250 registration

Front and Back Example Lesson

Jesus' Triumphal Entry
On Sunday of his first week of ministry on Earth, Jesus rode into Jerusalem as a triumphant king accompanied by an enthusiastic crowd, but then He announced His impending death.

NT-18

Key Content:

- Zechariah, 500 years earlier, prophesied that the king of the Jews would enter Jerusalem, riding on a young donkey.
- Soon after he raised Lazarus from the dead, Jesus fulfilled Zechariah's prophecy as a large crowd supported Him, crying out, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!"
- But Jesus fully understood the fickleness of the crowd and spoke frankly to His disciples about His impending death, declaring, "And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people [of all ethnic backgrounds] to myself."
