

Review 1 Corinthians 13:4-5.

We’ve learned about walking in love as relates to unity, spiritual gifts, and worship. Today we’ll be looking at something quite obvious: our relationships, particularly in the church.

Think back over your life . . .

“What was the most unique relationship you ever had (or still have)?

Read Hebrews 13. See how many types of relationships you find in the passage and what our relationships should be like in the church.

Types of Relationships	What are they to be Like?

What practical steps might you need to take to better your relationships with leaders and others in the church?

Read 1 Timothy 2. See how many types of relationships you find in this passage and what our relationships should be like in the church.

Types of Relationships	What are they to be Like?

What practical steps might you need to take to better your relationships with leaders and others in the church?

Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:6. It does not rejoice at wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth.

06

Relationships!

Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:6. It does not rejoice at wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth.